THOMAS N. VAIL WEDS BROOKLINE GIRL

President of the American Telephone Company Surprised—Wedding Tour on Yacht.

Boston, July 31.—The many friends of Theodore Newton Vail, president of the American Telephone company, were surprised when they learned yesterday that he had slipped into this city from his summer home at Lyndonville, Vt., last Saturday, and was married to Miss Mabel Rutledge Sanderson of Brookline.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother. None of the bride's friends except the very close ones knew of the romance.

A New York newspaper the marriage notice was published yesterday.

As soon as the couple had been married they left Boston on the yacht of the groom.

HAIGHT & FREESE CLAIMS.

Special Master Marcus Morton Files Report in U. S. Circuit Court.

Boston, July 30.—Marcus Morton, to whom was submitted as special master claims against the Haight & Freese company, filed his report in the United States court yesterday. He passed upon 1,501 claims. He disallowed many where the evidence tended to show that the parties were aware that the transaction which was the basis of the claim was its nature a gaming contract, for which equity affords no relief. In regard to the claims of Massachusetts persons, he allowed a number of small claims if the law recognizes them in this state.

He disallowed a number of claims of New York and Philadelphia parties for the reason that sufficient proof could not be produced, access to the books having been unobtainable.

The big claims allowed are: Leonard L. Bartlett of Montague, $74,928.27; cut down to $74,929.73; M. D. Fletcher, Erie, Pa., $30,456.23; cut to $24,048.01; George E. Grogins, Bar Harbor, $14,250.70; cut to $8,080.37; C. H. Ingraham, Pop-pish beach, $10,700; cut to $3,286.12; L. M. Reynolds, $23,000; W. H. Williams, $7,700; F. W. Pickles, Annapolis, Md., $8,478.31; J. Thomas Woodhead asked for only $9,068.75 and was allowed $9,207.

The claim of Ernest F. Kuris of Philadelphia for $14,047.26 was disallowed for want of sufficient proof.

GETS HUMBOLDT SMELTER.

Thomas W. Lawson Secures Arizona Property.

Prescott, Ariz., July 31.—Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, according to an announcement made last night, now controls the Humboldt smelter near Prescott, having secured possession on July 9 of all but twenty-five thousand shares of the capital stock of the Consolidated Arizona Smelting Company.

The intention is said to be to enlarge the plant and develop various copper properties owned by the company. The present capacity of the smelter is 600 tons per day. The company is capitalized at $1,500,000.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Owen McCarthy, of West Rutland, whose head was split open by two Polanders Wednesday morning, is now practically out of danger.

The condition of United States Marshal Horace W. Bailey, of Rutland, who recently underwent an operation for the amputation of one foot, is steadily improving and his ultimate recovery is assured.

It is announced that Mrs. Thomas Platt, of New York, who recently bought Dr. Caroline Smith's farm in West Brattleboro, has decided to go to Europe and will not occupy the farm this season, if at all.

Duties amounting to $65,415.08 were collected in the customs district of Vermont during the month of June. For the same period last year the duties amounted to $60,640.81. The amount of merchandise reported through the district of Vermont last month was $751,709.

TRIED TO BLOW UP GRAND DUKE'S TRAIN.

Torpedo Failed to Injure Peter Nichol-aievitch, the Reactionary Leader.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—One of the "accidents" that occur frequently while members of the imperial family are traveling happened while Grand Duke Peter Nikolaievitch, cousin of the emperor and a leader of the reactionary group at the courts, was on his way to St. Petersburg from Peterhof. Ten miles from St. Petersburg a petard placed on the rail exploded. The explosion, however, failed to derail the train and no one was hurt.

An attempt was made April 10 on the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nich-olaievitch and Peter Nikolaievitch, who were returning from Tsarskoe-Selo by train. At Kuzmino, 13 miles from St.
Petersburg, it was brought to a sudden stop by a fusillade. If the president had been seen four men behind the embankment, evidently awaiting the train. Nobody was injured and the men made their escape.

Two of the men convicted of participation in the murder of Major-General Von der Launitz, prefect of police of St. Petersburg, which occurred on January 3 last, were executed. Their names were not known.

FRICK HURRIES BACK FROM PARIS.

News of Rogers' Illness Is the Cause of His Return to America at This Time.

Paris, July 31.—Henry Clark Frick, who has planned to remain in Europe for another month, has sailed suddenly for the United States on receipt of dispatches announcing the serious illness of Henry H. Rogers, vice-president of the Standard Oil company.

While the illness of Mr. Rogers was officially denied, it is known that he was overcome at his New York office and went to his home at Fairhaven, Mass., to rest. While he later paid a brief visit to New York, he almost immediately went away on his yacht.

BLAZING AUTOMOBILE RUNS TO RUIN.

A Boston Lawyer's Chauffeur Races With the Machine on Fire at Burrard's Bay.

Burrard's Bay, Mass., July 31.—Timothy W. Cook's automobile is a ruin in the Tremont woods.

The Boston attorney is a summer resident at Butler's Cove, on the Wareham side of Burrard's Bay. His chauffeur went dashing through Parker's mills with the machine on fire. The chauffeur turned over and saw the blaze, but continued on. The wind caused the flames to spread. When the machine was stopped the woodwork had caught fire and the machine was soon a wreck.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA SETS NEW FASHION.

Dainty Trifle of Jewels, Tulle and Feather, to Match Wearer's Costume.

London, July 31.—The queen has set a new fashion which it is said is likely to become one of the most popular fancies of the year. This is a summer muff, a dainty trifle made of flowers, feathers and chiffon or tulle, which must match the wearer's toque and ruffe.

Besides being declared artistic, the summer muff will be a boon to the wearers of pocketless gowns, as it is fitted with a pocket large enough to hold a handkerchief and purse.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it.
The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A good cause, however, Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, innoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

Destroy the cause—your remove the effect.
Sold by leading druggists. Send five cents for sample to The Herpicide Co.,

THINKS HUNTINGTON INSANE.

The Magistrate Orders Him to Be Examined.

Versailles, July 31.—H. Hirsch, the examining magistrate before whom the Huntington case has been brought, decided yesterday that Henry Huntington, who Sunday night shot and wounded two sisters and two brothers at the bedside of his dying father, should be examined as to his sanity. H. Hirsch says that the prisoner, who at times was strangely agitated, told such conflicting stories that he was convinced he was suffering from neurasthenia, and furthermore, the magistrate considers that Henry Huntington's wife is similarly affected. Mrs. Huntington admitted yesterday that her husband had twice been under treatment for nervous disorders.

A Presidential Compliment.

The late President McKinley was one of the most amiable men in the world, and could be equally gallant. On one occasion a very sweet and attractive woman said to him:

"Mr. President, I do wish my husband had such a temper as yours."

"Thank you," he responded, bowing, "but really, madam, you ask too much."

She didn't quite catch the drift of his reply, and looked it.

"You see," he went on, "two such tempers in the same family would be a prodigality of sweets."

The explanation made the drift quite apparent. "If the president hadn't laughed a little at her, and her face redened like a girl's,—Puck.

other man in the congregation.—Chicago

A Wonderful Happening.

Port Byron, N. Y., has witnessed one of the most remarkable cases of healing ever recorded. Anna F. King, of that place, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured a sore on my leg with which I had suffered over 80 years. I am now eighty-five." Guaranteed to cure all sores, by Rickers & Wells of the Red Cross Pharmacy, 25c.

ESTATE OF MARY M. HUTCHINS.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, District of Washington, ss. In and for Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 25th day of July, A. D. 1907.

Daniel S. May, Administrator of the estate of Mary M. Hutchins, late of the City of Barre, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Court in and for Montpelier, on the 10th day of August, A. D. 1907, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered that notice be given to all persons interested, by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published in the City of Barre, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, and show cause why said account should not be allowed, and why said application should not be granted.

By the Court. Attest.
